Previous to the ceremony an extensive parade of religious societies took place, starting from the corner of Grant street and Fifth avenue promptly at 3 o'clock. The promptness with which the grand marshal started the parade was the cause of considerable disappointment to a number of socicties intending to appear in line, but who arrived too late to receive places and were consequently obliged to return home. under command of Captain Buckley, The company executed a series of fancy movements that gained considerable applause from the spectators along the line of march. The parade was made up as follows:

Bishop Phelan was to have officiated at the ceremonies, but at the last mo-ment Father Sheedy received a message that it would be impossible for him to be present. In his absence, Rev. Father Sheedy made a few remarks, thanking the people for their interest in the cause of education, and predicted that the course of study to be pursued in the new school would convince people that parochial schools impart the knowledge that not only fits the young for this life, but also for citi-

In conclusion the speaker urged the Catholic people to place their children under the charge of preceptors who had for-saken the world to devote their lives to the Church. The reverend gentleman was ire-quently applauded during his address, and mposing Turnout and Ceremonies in Found ing Allegheny's New Turner Hall-Many Societies Participate.

The corner stone of the new Allegheny Turner Hall on South Canal street was laid at 6 o'clock last evening in the presence of about 2,000 people. This is the building erected on the site of the old hall, which burned down about two years ago, and the cost of the new structure will amount to $30,000. Half of this amount has been raised among the members of the Allegheny Turnverein themselves, and the balance of the cash was loaned them.

The new hall, when finished, promises to be one of the finest in the State of Pennsylvania. Mr. Joseph Stillburg, the architect, Mercy's Church (Rev. Father Sheedy's) furnished a drawing to THE DISPATCH some time ago and a cut as well as a description appeared at that time in the columns of this paper. The building has 46 feet front on South Canal street and extends back along Cherry street, a distance of 103 feet. The lower part is of stone and the upper part is to be of brick with a pressed brick front. It will be two stories high in front and three stories in the rear. In the basement are to be placed the gymnasium, bowling alley and baths. On the first floor will be the meeting room, dining room and One of the most attractive features of the parade was the marching and drill of the St. Andrews Light Infantry, of Allegheny, will have one gallery and will be fitted with will have one galtery and will be litted with a stage at one end.

The Building Committee, under whose directions the hall is being built, is composed of the following named gentlemen: Henry Bloedel, Ihsen, Waldsmit, Hollender, Marshall, Wilhelm, Staeger, Schimberger, Albert, Ehlers, Kochendoefer, Holderman, Neidhard and Daum.

In preparation for the ceremony of the laving the corner stone the members of the Allegheny Turnverein and delegations from Lawrenceville, Pittsburg, Allentown, Bir-

Allegheny Turnverein and delegations from Lawrenceville, Pittsburg, Allentown, Birmingham, Southside, Steubenville and Bellaire—in all about 400 men—assembled at Beilstein's Hall, No. 263 East Ohio street. At 5 o'clock they formed in line and marched to Bohemian Hall, Venial street. Here they were joined by 250 prettilyattired boys and girls, who are members of the gymnasium, which, under the charge of Oscar Sheer, was removed to Bohemian Hall when the Turner Hall burned down. From Bohemian Hall the parade, headed by the Allegheny City Band, marched about the streets of upper Allegheny and to the new building. Here the corner stone was laid by Henry Bloedel, while the class of 45 singers in the Turnverein, under the was laid by Henry Bloedel, while the class of 45 singers in the Turnverein, under the direction of Prof. B. Kellers, and, accompanied by the band, furnished the music. In his dedicatory address Mr. Bloedel gave a concise history of the Allegheny Turnverein. It was founded in 1850 by the Rev. Charles Weitershausen, and from a mem-bership of 70 it has grown until there are now 364 members. Mr. Gotfried Ihsen con-cluded the exercises and recited some origi-nal poetry he had prepared for the occasion.

MORE RAPID TRANSIT AT ONCE.

Mr. Verner Introduces a Faster Schodule Mr. Murray Verner will take charge of the Birmingham street car line to-day, and will immediately inaugurate-comparatively rapid transit on the road. The running schedule on the road is at present 41 minutes from the long line stables to the Union depot, and a new schedule will be immediately put in force covering the same distance in 35 minutes, or six minutes less in time.

The live stock of the road is in such excellent condition that the above or even a further increase in time is deemed feasible.

This action is taken pending the securing of the rapid transit charter. Mr. Verner's advent as Superintendent is hailed with great satisfaction by the em-ployes of the road, and he will receive an ovation when he assumes formal charge.

There seems to be an impression that electricity will be the motive power under the rapid transit charter, but Mr. H. Sellers McKee stated yesterday that the cable system would be positively introduced and that contracts would be let and pushed with all speed as soon as legal requirements can

DR. WOOD STILL VERY ILL.

The Well-Known Physician is Passing Critical Point.

Dr. E. A. Wood, the eminent physician and literateur of the Southside, is not yet considered out of danger by his attending physician, Dr. Thomas.

A consultation was held by Drs. McCann, Murdoch and Thomas on Saturday evening, and while the medical gentlemen concurred in the opinion that Dr. Wood was not in serious danger, it was admitted that he was a very sick man. No one is allowed to see him, although scores of his friends call daily at his residence making anxious inquiries. His ultimate recovery is confi-dently expected.

CLERGY IN RETREAT

Many Pittsburg Priests Spend a Special Lenten Season.

Circular. HOW 25 JOHNSTOWN WAIPS PLOURISH

The regular annual retreat of the Catholic priests of the Pittsburg diocese will be begun to-day at St. Francis Monastery, Loretto. The retreat will last for two weeks. One-half of the priests will attend this week, and the remainder will go next week. About 130 priests altogether will go into the retreat.

To many non-Catholic readers of THE DISPATCH it may be instructive to state what a retreat is. It is a period of prayer, instruction and devout meditation for the priests. A sort of lenten season exclusively for the clergy. During the time the priests are on retreat they are not allowed to speak o one another only when absolutely necessary. A priest from one of the many orders is generally assigned to conduct the retreat and all communication must be done through him. This year the bishop has assigned Rev. Father Dunn, of New York, a member of the Jesuit order, to conduct the

Rise at 5 A. M.; prayer, 5:30; meditation until 6:30; mass, 6:30; breakfast, 7; recreation for half hour. 7:30; spiritual reading, 7:45; conference, 8:30; free time, 10; meditation, 11; particular examination, 11:45; dinner, 12; recreation and free time until 3; conference, 3; beads, 4:30; free time, 5; meditation, 6:30; free time and supper, 7; benedication, 8; meditation and night prayers, 8:30.

The conferences mentioned in the programme are lectures given by the conductor. The latter is a venerable priest, and gives instruction in regard to the duties and life of the clergy. In consequence of this ob-of the clergy. In consequence of this ob-servance of a season of retreat, Father Molyaux will be the only priest at St. Paul'

Cathedral this week.

In all the Catholic churches throughout In all the Catholic churches throughout the diocese yesterday a circular letter was read from Rt. Rev. Bishop Phelan, request-ing that a collection be taken up in all the churches next Sunday for the benefit of the St. Paul's Orphan Asylum. The institution is in a very straitened financial condition, and the help is needed. There are at present over 400 children in the asylum, who have to be ted, clothed and educated by the Sistern

WAIFS FROM THE FLOOD. About 25 of these children came from Johnstown, and while the Pittsburg Relief Committee are getting rid of their several hundred thousand dollars, it is suggested that they might drop some of it right here. The Sisters have taken care of the children The Sisters have taken care of the children since they were turned over to them, and have not received one cent of pay. This is a similar case to that of Mercy Hospital, which applied to the committee for aid, but was refused. In his letter, the Bishop appeals to charitable people to contribute what little they can to the institution.

Thursday and Friday will be celebrated in the Catholic Church as feast days. The former is the feast of St. James the Apostle, and the latter the feast of St. Ann.

and the latter the feast of St. Ann. Rev. Father Wall, rector of the Cathedral, will return home from New York Wednesday. He will have with him the designs for the decoration of the inside of the church.

The second week of the retreat of the Sisters of Mercy, at St. Xavier's, will begin to-day.

Flemon's Counsel, Mesers Marshalland Mc Kenna, Will Try the Supreme Court-Sermons Agninst Extradition. Messrs. Marshall and McKenna, couns for Rev. E. F. Flemon, the colored ministe wanted in South Carolina for murder, left last evening for Philadelphia, where they expect to argue for a stay of 10 days upon habens corpus in order to settle the disputed legal points of the prisoner's extradition.

There was nothing new devoloped in this. interesting case yesterday, except that the attempt to take Flemon to South Carolina formed the themes of indignant sermons delivered by the entire colored clergy of Pitts burg and Allegheny. At Zion'ss M. E. Church Rev. Jehu Holliday, senior pastor, preached a strong sermon in which he ridiculed South Carolina justice as applied to those of his race, and alluded to Rev. Mr. Flemon as a possible martyr. He also hinted that the present case afforded an excellent opportunity for certain prominent politicians and public men who were always talking about the men who were always talking about the suppression of the colored race in the South, to bestir themselves and do something practical to aid Flemon in the present critical juncture. Mr. Holliday depicted his personal experiences in South Carolina, and got his hearers very enthusiastic.

No response had been received to the telegram sent by the committee of colored ministers to Governor Beaver, and a prominent colored man said last night that he thought Governor Beaver would show both political and moral wisdom in returning a speedy and affirmative answer.

FOR THE CATHEDRAL PICNIC. The Sale of Tickets Not Large, But a Goo

Crowd is Expected. All arrangements have been completed for the picnic of St. Paul's Cathedral congregation, to be held at Silver Lake Grove Saturday next. It was stated to the mem bers of the parish yesterday that the sale col tickets was not quite so large as had begin tickets was not quite so large as had been expected, but the indications are that their will be a large attendance. Messrs. John B. Larkin, postmaster, and James Flainnery have been appointed gatekeepers, and it is very likely they will have all they can do to take the tickets.

The tables will be in charge of Mrs. Thomas McAndrews, Mrs. Broderick, Mrs. James O'Connor and Miss Katie Giblin.
